162	Multiple Land and Road Maps from WWII	8 Land and road maps, dated 1941, showing the French towns, areas and roads for use to the United States Forces. Includes towns such as Lemans, Paris-Reence, Metz, Cherbourg and others.

163	Two large maps of Germany from WWII	Two maps of Germany dated 1944, in German. Probably captured and the larger of the two are marked off into Roman numerals as to corridors or sections (1 through XIII). Largest map is broken into East and West Germany. Maps are 3x4 feet and the other, larger. Along with these maps are 8 STARS and STRIPES Military Newspapers. Headlines to these papers are "Holland Invaded by Air", "Siegfried Line is Burst", "Battle in Dutch Corridor", "Invasion of Germany", "Nancy Falls to 3rd Army", and "VICTORY". Two others.
164	German WWII Binoculars	A pair of binoculars and case belonging to Lt. Langley. A pair of German binoculars. Lt Langley obtained after a German was "done" using them. 6x24 power and made by Hensold and other optic marked Gelandesport. Missing one eye piece. Complete with leather case. Great condition.
165	Captured G-43 Ammunition Clip	Captured ammunition clip for G-43 German rifle. However, this clip is marked K-43. For the later model of the same gun basically. AWJ and Waffen proof marked. Fine condition.
166	German G-43 Rifle	German G-43 S/A Rifle. The Nazi's answer to the M-1 Garand. Lt Langley might have gotten this from the same guy with the binoculars. He probably didn't need it anymore. Serial number 7139 and appears to be all matching (outside). Fine wood with the red streaks so often found in these weapons. Other marks on metal DUV 44 and Waffen marks. Interesting that there are no marks in the wood at all. Metal parts are crude but in fine condition with appropriate finish. Complete with clip and original sling.
167	German Model 1940 Luftwaffe Helmet	Another great captured or liberated item is this Model 1940 Luftwaffe Helmet. The helmet is in almost unused condition! Decal is virtually 100% intact. Leather liner is unused and liner marked with size 59. Chinstrap is missing. Ink stamp in crown is perfect. Hard to find a better helmet.
168	Walther Model 4 Pistol	Here we have an excellent condition Walther #4 (3 rd production) semi-auto pistol, chambered in 7.65. Serial number 242446, 3 1/2" barrel. This little police pistol is in excellent condition, retaining all original parts and nearly all original finish. The bore on this walther is near mint! Probably was unfired. Lt Langley has capture papers with this gun and they will be included with the gun when sold. Complete with holster and clip.
169	German Model 1935 Army Helmet	Another captured helmet, a Model 1935 Army helmet with chinstrap, liner and very good Army decal on the side. Size NS64. White inked German id Dienemann in the neck of the helmet. Good honest pickup.
170	Miscellaneous US Mess Gear from WWII	Lot of miscellaneous US mess gear consisting of mess trays with Langley's name on it, four sets of silver wear and a 1918 canteen. Also 5 bandoliers of M-1 Garand ammunition (250 rounds) also included is a decorative graduation certificate from artillery school given to Langley for the 30th battalion.
171	Puma WWII Dress Bayonet	Wonderful dress bayonet with leather frog. Made by desirable maker Puma, Solingen. Approximately 9 7/8" long blade. Blade and all metal parts with 100% plating intact. Black lacquered scabbard has about 80% finish. Brown leather frog is very supple, with no marks. Plastic grip is perfect.
172	Alcoso WWII German Dress Bayonet	Another super conditioned German Dress bayonet and scabbard. Made by Alcoso, Solingen. 7 1/2" blade. Blade and all metal parts are plated and in perfect condition. Black painted scabbard is 99.99%. Black Plastic grips are perfect. A little shorter than lot 171.

Small sliver of wood cut out of one slab of grip. Blued scabbard is marked on the frog attachment "CSZ" and the numbers "3" and "37". Overall condition is very good. The second bayonet is 18 1/2" overall and is made entirely out of metal. The four sided bayonet blade is 12 1/2" long. Marked beneath catch of bayonet on the flat is "7070" and old English letters prefix of "FK". Overall condition is very good. A great chance to buy to high quality bayonets!
174	Complete C-Rations Menu #3, Combat Rations Kit from WWII	These are very hard to come by C-Rations Menu #3, Combat. Often find individual pieces and cans but here is a complete meal consisting of 7 cans and two packets and a package of 3 plastic spoons. Such delicacies as ground meat and spaghetti, beans, pork and tomato sauce, and chicken and vegetables; mmm, mmm! Likewise, another scarce meal is this K-ration supper individual meal that Lt. Langley brought home. Complete. We also have included a can of "dubbing" and a US Army D-ration, single box. The guys couldn't get far enough away from these things when they got out and to find these 65 years later is unusual to say the least. They show signs of spoiling and are not to be tried for dinner!
175	Cigar box with miscellaneous relics from WWII	A cigar box of miscellaneous US and German pieces thrown in the box by Langley shortly after the war and we are letting them go as one lot. The cigar box the artifacts are housed in is a neat relic itself. A Waitt & Bond YANKEE brand box with 1942 patent date. There is a tax stamp that says Free Duty to Naval and Army personal in Alaska, Hawaii, and outside US territories. Inside the box we find a lot of 30-40 miscellaneous bullets, US and German. Next we have a pack of Lucky Strike cigarettes. These were taken from C rations. A German billfold with insignia pips and regiment designation of 459 Infantry or Artilleryman perhaps. There are miscellaneous knobs, possibly from a radio, another billfold (Langley) captured, Bakelite match safe with German markings. A sight from a German anti-aircraft type machine gun. Best of all is a cleaning kit for a German rifle, complete with bakelite oiler, chain rod and two brushes and another takedown type tool.
176	German Belt, Buckle and Cartridge box for Mauser Rifle	This lot contains a captured German belt, and buckles, and a pair of German cartridge boxes for the Mauser rifle. 177	Large number of cloth insignias	This is a lot of German insignia is made up mostly of National Eagles for uniforms and hats. There are 12 cloth eagles of different sizes and background colors. Three National cockades, one pair of shoulder straps, they are green piped in red and have a red S or 5 in center. One single shoulder strap GD intertwined (Grossdeutschland) Panzer division, and an arm badge Chevron, and last but not least is the black background Waffen SS Mountain troops shoulder patch with Edelweiss. Also there is a small silk bag with what looks like a small piece of shrapnel inside; must have had some significance to Lt. Langley. 23 Pieces total.
178	Panzer Cuff Title	This scarce Panzer Cuff title insignia was taken from the right cuff or forearm of a German tanker after November of 1944. Grossdeutschland (Greater Germany) title was worn by all ranks of Panzer Division troops. Many attached to SS.
179	SS and Hitler Youth Armband and Silverware	Four piece set of German mess tableware, marked with the eagle-swastika on the carrier. All pieces marked or numbered 86. Next is a early German SS arm band with applied swastika. Three piece construction and a paper tag attached to the rear with RZM and lightning bolts in a circle SS issued in very fine overall condition. Last is a Hitler Youth arm band with three piece construction, in overall good condition.
180	Chess Set, Empty Mortar Shell, Piece of Parachute	Four more pieces of Lt. Langley's memorabilia. First is a little chest set in a wooden box, probably part of Langley's personal effects. Next is a trail assembly from a mortar round or shell, marked M-32 and dated 1944. Third is a Swastika, gold plated and probably taken off of a building, 4 1/2" in diameter made of sheet steel. Last is a silk portion of a parachute that was used for dropping supplies and ammunition. Yellow in color, neat relic. Measures approx. 18" by 36".
181	2 Foot Lockers	Two trunks of Lt. Langley's from which all these great relics came in! Both trunks are od painted and of the type that were used and issued during WWII. Both trunks marked in several places with Lt. Frank Langley and his serial number. Both measure approx. 30x16x12" deep. Along with the two trunks comes a boxed construction medal, an artillery school certificate, and an address book belonging to Langley, which has other soldiers names in it with the regiments etc.
182	Oval Pictures	Two generations of Patriots: selling the relics from a father in "The Great War" and a son who served in WWII. First up is the very nice reverse painted photograph of Frank Meyer who served in WWI with the 132nd Infantry, 33rd Division from 1917 until 1919. Frame measures 22" by 16". Patriotic motifs and flags surround the painted photograph of Private Meyer. Wood frame, painted bronze-gold. Also with Frank's photo is a paperclip souvenir given to him by the G.S. Hanson company and is engraved with a pair of hobnail German boots with the admonishment "Keep these off the USA". The other side has a poem of tongue and cheek humor about the Kaiser, Wilhelm. Part of it goes "Ding, Dong, Bell. The Kaisers gone to Hell!". Also there are several pieces of paper and documents including discharges from the Illinois National Guard and US Government. The Next patriot whose souvenirs we are selling is the son of Frank Meyer, Richard Earl Meyer. Richard Meyer served in the Merchant Marine from 1944 to 1946. There is a like new "sweethearts" patriotic ladies compact in the box, never used. Made of chromed metal and marble like bakelite material, this attractive little compact has a colorful USN fouled
